Friday Seminars

10:00 am – 12:00 noon “Leadership Connection”

What resources do you need most to effectively develop and lead transformational ministries that advance the Kingdom of God?

This seminar facilitated by Ministry Coaches will offer:

- An assessment tool and explanation why this is significant for the women in your church
- A new look at the difference between generations and how these strengthens ministries
- A chance for leaders to share an example of an activity or event that connected women. Bring a sample of the publicity you used.

* Special! Questions & Answers with Ruth Hill following seminar

*There will be time for you to schedule a Coaching Conversation to personally discuss your Women Ministries questions and concerns.

To sign up for this seminar contact:

Lenore.Three.Stars@gmail.com, 425-350-9635 or BobetteScheid@gmail.com, 206-232-9854

12:00 – 3:00 pm Free-time for Lunch & Shopping in downtown Seattle

12:00 – 5:00 pm Free childcare for children of pastors’ wives. Contact Bobette at 206-232-9854 or bobettescheid@gmail.com

3:00 pm – 5:00 pm “Faith in the Fishbowl”

NEW! For Pastors’ Wives

Discussions will be focused on a book titled: Desperate Pastors’ Wives which is about 5 different types of stereotypical pastor’s wives who went from a support group to friendship.

Kristin will also provide informal opportunities where pastors’ wives can connect, share personal challenges and insights, and most importantly encourage one another. It will be helpful if you read the book. Used books will be available at the seminar for a nominal fee.

Facilitated by: Kristin Jagodzinske-Pastors’ wife @Alive Covenant Church in Poulsbo, WA & Gretchen Johnson.

For reservations contact Kristin at kristinjag@comcast.net or 360-731-0007.
